OF WEAKLEY COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. J. W. LEFTWICH.

FOR STATE SENATOR,
Hon. JOHN W. SMITH, of Shelby.

FOR REPRESENTATIVES,
Honorable DAN. ABLE,
Honorable W. W. COLEMAN.

State Central Executive Committee.
Colonel John Baxter, of Knox.
Hon. James Jones of Greene.

Hon. John C. Gaut, of Davidson.
Hon. Wm. B. Campbell, of Wilson.
Hon. A. A. Steele, of Marshall.

One of the State constables in Massachusetts is worth $100,000.

The physicians at Mobile have reduced their charges to what they were before the war.

There are 1,100 miles of railroad completed in Wisconsin, nearly all tributary to Milwaukee.

Hon. Humphrey Marshall has announced himself as a candidate for the Legislature from Henry county, Kentucky.

The Livermore Falls Gazette says Mr. Stinchfield, of Leeds, recently sold a horse in California for the snug little sum of $45,000.

Dr. Cummings' new book, The Last Woe, says the Jews, as a nation, are to be converted between 1867 and 1868, and Papacy to be utterly extinguished.

A factory girl at Lynn, Massachusetts, was struck completely dumb last week, but is otherwise in a perfect physical condition and able to continue her work.

The Lynchburg (Virginia) Republican has received a poem, which it declines to publish "on account of the magnitude of the manuscript and the paucity of the poetry."

Wendell Phillips says that when a colored man can compete favorably with a man who has three stars on each shoulder, he will believe that prejudice against the black man is gone.

Mrs. Catharine A. Warfield, of Kentucky, who published, a few years since, that singularly weired and strange fiction, "The Household of Bouverie," has written a new novel, entitled "The Romance of Beauseincourt."

The reported failure of the Second National Bank, of St. Louis, is contradicted. The Cashier in reply to a request for an explanation and information, telegraphed as follows: "Base falsehoods—nothing in them—sound as a nut—no run—no signs of it—no cause for it."

Dr. A. J. Ford, of Columbus, Georgia, has received notification that he has been elected as Professor of the Maryland Medical University at Baltimore. During the war the Doctor was Medical Director of the army of Tennessee, and since has been practicing, with marked success, medicine and surgery in Columbus.

The Cleveland Herald says: "If anything were necessary to convince the most ardent of the followers of Thad. Stevens that their idol is in his dotage, his letter, in favor of confiscation, will furnish it. The probable truth is that Stevens's advocacy of confiscation arises solely from his having a claim against the rebels for damage done to his property in Pennsylvania."

A dispatch from Toronto, dated June 4, says: "A fashionable wedding took place at St. James' Cathedral to-day. Wm. Hyde, editor of the St. Louis Republican, married Miss Benson, a Southern lady. The cathedral was densely crowded. Jeff. Davis, Mr. Mason, General Jubal Early, and a host of other Southern celibrities were present. Mr. Davis was loudly cheered."

A St. Louis dispatch of the 4th says: The impeachment trial of Judge King, which has been progressing before the Missouri Senate two or three weeks, terminated yesterday in his removal from office and disqualification from holding any office of honor, trust or profit in the State for two years. The respondent was found guilty upon all articles and specifications except one.

The Colorado Times says: "It is reported on good authority from Weaverville, that on the 31st ult., one Indian—a desperate character—killed four men on the west side, viz: Robert L. Stockton, (Indian agent, Hoop Valley,) James Latham, William Griffin and Isaac Stover, at a point two miles above Willow creek. The four were tryidg to arrest the murderer, when they were slain. Stockton was a brother-in-law of Senator Conness, of California."

The Lebanon (Tennessee) Herald says: We believe it is now safe to say that the wheat crop in our county has passed all danger, and our farmers now begin to realize the fact that the crop for 1867 will greatly exceed that for any previous year. Probably this would not be the case were it not that the area of ground covered by the present wheat crop is larger than was ever known before. It is expected by some that harvesting will commence in a week or so.

A premium of $500 is offered by the Philadelphia Union League for the best essay on "the legal organization of the people to elect candidates to office," with other premiums for other essays of merit on the same subject. We infer from this that the League has found its organization as a political clique to have proved a failure, and that it means to try another plan of controlling the people and keeping them subject to Radicalism.

The fight of Horace Greeley and the Union League Club reminds the Journal of Commerce of a story that used to be told of Daniel Webster and George Wood. Webster, having been retained in a suit at law, coming into court, asked his client, "Who is the opposing counsel?" The client, pointing to Mr. Wood, who sat in his favorite attitude, well remembered by all who knew him, "I don't know his name—it's that sleepy man yonder." "You need not wake him up," said Mr. Webster.

The following is a list of the "cadets at large" appointed by the President to the United States Military Academy for the present year: Wm. Boerum Wetmore, of New York; John B. Weller, jr., of California; Charles C. Morrison, of Ohio; Vinton A. Goddard, of District of Columbia; Rufus M. Williams, of Tennessee; Thomas Corbin Davenport, son of Commander Davenport, United States Navy; Jacob Rebhun, of Michigan; Wm. J. McDonald, of District of Columbia; Frederick Kege, sergeant 1st artillery; Bainbridge Reynolds, son of J. J. Reynolds, United States Army.

IMPORTANT REVENUE REGULATIONS.

Rulings in Relation to Stamp Duties.

The following rulings of the Revenue Department, in relation to United States stamp duties, are important to all lawyers and business men. Most of them are of recent date:

CANCELLATION.

In all cases where an adhesive stamp is used for denoting the stamp duty upon an instrument, the person using or affixing the same must write or imprint thereupon in ink the initials of his name, and the date (the year, month, and day) on which the same is attached or used. Each stamp should be separately cancelled. When stamps are printed upon checks, etc., so that in filling up the instrument, the face of the stamp is and must necessarily be written across, no other cancellation will be required.

All cancellation must be distinct and legible, and except in the case of proprietary stamps from private dies, no method of cancellation which differs from that above described can be recognized as legal and sufficient.

STAMPING OF INSTRUMENTS BY COLLECTORS.

Any person having an instrument about to be issued, may present it to the collector, who, under the authority conferred upon him by section 162, will so stamp it as to place the sufficiency of that particular instrument beyond all question so far as stamp duties are concerned. The provisions of the section can in no case be applied to an instrument after it has been issued or used.

A person who holds an unstamped conveyance founded upon a "confederate currency" consideration will be allowed to affix such stamps thereto as he may think sufficient, and no prosecution will be instituted by direction of this Office for the recovery of a penalty for failure to stamp it according to the nominal amount of such consideration. If the parties interested elect to stamp it according to the actual value of the consideration in United States currency at the date of its delivery, they will be allowed to do so, taking their own risk of the sufficiency of the stamp.

PENALTIES.

A penalty of fifty dollars is imposed upon every person who makes, signs, or issues, or who causes to be made, signed, or issued, any paper of any kind or description whatever, or who accepts, negotiates, or pays, or causes to be accepted, negotiated or paid, any bill of exchange, draft, or order, or promissory note, for the payment of money, without the same being duly stamped, or having thereupon an adhesive stamp for denoting the tax chargeable thereon, cancelled in the manner required by law, with intent to evade the provisions of the revenue act.

A penalty of two hundred dollars is imposed upon every person who pays, negotiates, or offers in payment, or receives or takes in payment, any bill of exchange or order for the payment of any sum of money, drawn or purporting to be drawn in a foreign country, but payable in the United States, until the proper stamp has been affixed thereto.

A penalty of fifty dollars is imposed upon every person who fraudulently makes use of an adhesive stamp to denote the duty required by the revenue act, without effectually cancelling and obliterating the same in the manner required by law.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

The law does not designate which of the parties to an instrument shall furnish the necessary stamp, nor does the Commissioner of Internal Revenue assume to determine that it shall be supplied by one party rather than by another; but if an instrument subject to stamp duty is issued without having the necessary stamps affixed thereto, it cannot be recorded, or admitted, or used as evidence, in any court, until a legal stamp or stamps, denoting the amount of tax, shall have been affixed as prescribed by law, and the person who thus issues it is liable to a penalty, if he omits the stamps with an intent to evade the provisions of the internal revenue act.

The first act imposing a stamp tax upon certain specified instruments took effect, so far as said tax is concerned, October 1, 1862. The impression which seems to prevail to some extent, that no stamps are required upon any instruments issued in the States lately in insurrection, prior to the surrender, or prior to the establishment of collection districts there, is erroneous.

Instruments issued in those States since October 1, 1862, are subject to the same taxes as similar ones issued at the same time in other States.

No stamp is necessary upon an instrument executed prior to October 1, 1862, to make it admissible in evidence, or to entitle it to record.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any written or printed evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand, or at a time designated, are subject to stamp duty as "promissory notes."

When two or more persons join in an execution, the stamp to which the instrument is liable under the law may be affixed and cancelled by either of them; and "when more than one signature is affixed to the same paper, one or more stamps may be affixed thereto, representing the whole amount of the stamps required for such signatures."

No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto, the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required; and, whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers—such stamp duty being the highest rate required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgement of the instrument which is not stamped.

Particular attention is called to the change in section 154 by striking out the words "or used;" the exemption thereunder is thus restricted to documents, etc., issued by the officers therein named. Also to the changes in sections 152 and 158, by inserting the words, "and cancelled in the manner required by law."

The acceptor or acceptors of any bill of exchange, or order for the payment of any sum of money, drawn or purporting to be drawn in any foreign country, but payable in the United States, must, before paying or accepting the same, place thereupon a stamp indicating the duty.

It is only upon conveyances of realty sold that conveyance stamps are necessary. A deed of real estate made without valuable consideration need not be stamped as a conveyance; but if it contains covenants, such, for instance, as a covenant to warrant and defend the title, it should be stamped as an agreement or contract.

When a deed purporting to be a conveyance of realty sold, and stamped accordingly, is inoperative, a deed of confirmation, made simply to cure the defect, requires the stamp. In such case, the second deed should contain a recital of the facts, and should show the reasons for its execution.

Partition deeds between tenants in common need not be stamped as conveyances, inasmuch as there is no sale of realty, but merely marking out, or a defining, of the boundaries of the part belonging to each; but where money or other valuable consideration is paid by one co-tenant to another for equality of partition, there is a sale to the extent of such consideration, and the conveyance by the party receiving it, should be stamped accordingly.

A conveyance of lands sold for unpaid taxes, issued since August 1, 1866, by the officers of any county, town, or other municipal corporation in the discharge of their strictly official duties, is exempt from stamp tax.

A conveyance of realty sold subject to a mortgage should be stamped according to the consideration, or the value of the property unencumbered. The consideration in such case is to be found by adding the amount paid for the equity of redemption to the mortgage debt. The fact that one part of the consideration is paid to the mortgagor and the other part to the mortgagee does not change the liability of the conveyance.

The stamp tax upon a mortgage is based upon the amount it is given to secure. The fact that the value of the property mortgaged is less than that amount, and consequently the security is only partial, does not change the liability of the instrument. When, therefore, a second mortgage is given to secure the payment of a sum of money partially secured by a prior mortgage upon other property, or when two mortgages upon separate property are given at the same time to secure the payment of the same sum, each should be stamped as though it were the only one.

A mortgage given to secure a surety from loss, or given for any purpose whatever, other than as security for the payment of a definite and certain sum of money, is taxable only as an agreement or contract.

The stamp duty upon a lease, agreement, memorandum, or contract for the hire, use, or rent of any land, tenement, or portion thereof, is based upon the annual rent or rental value of the property leased, and the duty is the same whether the lease be for one year, for a term of years, or for the fractional part of a year only.

Upon every assignment or transfer of a mortgage, a stamp tax is required equal to that imposed upon a mortgage for the amount remaining unpaid; this tax is required upon every such transfer in writing, whether there is a sale of the mortgage or not; but no stamp is necessary upon the indorsement of a negotiable instrument, even though the legal effect of such indorsment is to transfer a mortgage by which the instrument is secured.

An assignment of a lease within the meaning and intent of schedule B, is an assignment of the leasehold, or of some portion thereof, by the lessee; or by some person claiming by, from, or under him; such an assignment as subrogates the assignee to the rights, or some portion of the rights, of the lessee, or of the person standing in his place. A transfer by the lessor of his part of a lease, neither giving nor purporting to give a claim to the leashold, or to any part thereof, but simply a right to the rents, etc., is subject to stamp tax as a contract or agreement only.

The stamp tax upon a fire insurance policy is based upon the premium.

Deposit notes taken by a mutual fire insurance company, not as payment of premium nor as evidence of indebtedness therefor, but to be used simply as a basis upon which to make ratable assessments to meet the losses incurred by the company should not be reckoned as premium in determining the amount of stamp taxes upon the policies.

When a policy of insurance, properly stamped, has been issued and lost, no stamp is necessary upon another issued by the same company to the same party, covering the same property, time, etc., and designed simply to supply the loss. The second policy should recite the loss of the first.

An instrument which operates as the renewal of a policy of insurance is subject to the same stamp tax as the policy.

When a policy of insurance is issued for a certain time, whether it be for one year only or for a term of years, a receipt for premium or any other instrument which has the legal effect to continue the contract and extend its operation beyond that time requires the same amount of revenue stamps as the policy itself; but such a receipt as is usually given for the payment of the monthly, quarterly or annual premium, is not a renewal within the meaning of the statute. The payment simply prevents the policy from expiring, by reason of non-performance of its conditions; a receipt given for such a payment requires a two cent stamp, if the amount received exceeds twenty dollars, and a two cent stamp only. When, however, the time of payment has passed, and a tender of the premium is not sufficient to bind the company, but a new policy or a new contract in some form, with the mutuality essential to every contract, becomes necessary between the insurer and the insured, the same amount of stamps should be used as that required upon the original policy.

A permit issued by a life insurance company changing the terms of a policy as to travel, residence, occupation, etc., should be stamped as a contract or agreement.

A bill single or a bill obligatory, i. e., an instrument in the form of a promissory note, under seal, is subject to stamp duty as written or printed evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at a time designated, at the rate of five cents for each one hundred dollars or fractional part thereof.

A waiver of protest, or of demand and notice, written upon negotiable paper and signed by the indorser, is an agreement, and requires a five cent stamp.

A stamp duty of twenty-five cents is imposed upon the "protest of every note, bill of exchange, check or draft," and upon every marine protest. If several notes, bills of exchange, drafts, etc., are protested at the same time, and all attached to one and the same certificate, stamps should be affixed to the amount of twenty-five cents for each note, bill, draft, etc., thus protested.

When a subscription is for a purpose in which there is a community of interest among the subscribers, the list should be stamped as a contract, or agreement, at the rate of five cents for each sheet or piece of paper upon which it is written.

When there is no community of interest, and the subscription is conditional, each signer executes a separate contract, requiring its appropriate amount of stamps; this amount depends upon the number of sheets or pieces of paper upon which the contract is written.

When each of the subscribers contract to pay a certain and definite sum of money on demand, or at a time designated, the separate contract of each should be stamped at the same rate as a promissory note.

When, as is generally the case, the caption to a deposition contains other certificates in addition to the jurat to the affidavit of the deponent, such as a certificate that the parties were or were not notified, that they did or did not appear, that they did or did not object, etc., it is subject to a stamp duty of five cents.

When an attested copy of a writ or other process is used by a sheriff or other person in making personal service, or in attaching property, a five cent stamp should be affixed to the certificate of attestation.

A marriage certificate issued by the officiating clergyman or magistrate, to be returned to any officer of a State, county, city, town, or other municipal corporation, to constitute part of a public record, requires no stamp; but if it is to be retained by the parties, a five cent stamp should be affixed.

The stamp tax upon a bill of sale by which any ship or vessel, or any part thereof, is conveyed to or vested in any other person or persons, is at the same rate as that imposed upon conveyances of realty sold; a bill of sale of any other personal property should be stamped as a contract or agreement.

An assignment of real or personal property, or of both, for the benefit of creditors, should be stamped as an agreement or contract.

Written or printed assignments of agreements, bonds, notes not negotiable, and of all other instruments the assignments of which are not particularly specified in the foregoing schedule, should be stamped as agreements.

No stamp is necessary upon the registry of a judgment, even though the registry is such in its legal effect as to create a lien which operates as a mortgage upon the property of the judgment debtor.

When a "power of attorney or proxy for voting at any election for officers of any incorporated company or society, except religious, charitable, or literary societies or public cemeteries," is signed by several stockholders, owning separate and distinct shares, it is, in its legal effect, the separate instrument of each, and require stamps to the amount of ten cents for each and every signature; one or more stamps may be used representing the whole amount required.

A notice from landlord to tenant to quit possession of premises requires no stamp.

A stamp tax is imposed upon every "manifest for custom house entry or clearance of the cargo of any ship, vessel, or steamer for a foreign port." The amount of this tax in each case depends upon the registered tonnage of the vessel.

If a vessel clears in ballast and has no cargo whatever, no stamp is necessary; but if she has any—however small the amount—a stamp should be used.

A bond to convey real estate requires stamps to the amount of twenty-five cents.

The stamp duty upon the probate of a will, or upon letters of administration, is based upon the sworn or declared value of all the estate and effects, real, personal and mixed, undiminished by the debts of the estate for or in respect of which such probate or letters are applied for.

When the property belonging to the estate of a person deceased lies under different jurisdictions, and it becomes necessary to take out letters in two or more places, the letters should be stamped according to the value of all the property, real, personal and mixed, for or in respect of which the particular letters in each case are issued.

Letters de bonis non should be stamped according to the amount of property remaining to be administered upon thereunder, regardless of the stamps upon the original letters.

A mere copy of an instrument is not subject to stamp duty unless it is a certified one, in which case a five cent stamp should be affixed to the certificate of the person attesting it; but when an instrument is executed and issued in duplicate, triplicate, etc., as in the case of a lease of two or more parts, each part has the same legal effect as the other, and each should be stamped as an original.

ARKANSAS.

The Members of the Legislature on the Interference of the Military.

The members of the Arkansas Legislature have affixed their signature to the following protest:

Whereas, E. O. C. Ord, Brevet Major General commanding, etc., did, on the 15th day of April, 1867, direct Isaac Murphy, as Governor of the State of Arkansas, to notify and inform the members of the "Provisional Legislature" of said State that their reconvening is incompatible with the recent act of Congress called the "reconstruction act," and that they will not reassemble; and whereas, Isaac Murphy, as such Governor, did, on the 26th day of April, 1867, publish an order whereby it was ordered, among other things, that such Legislature was dissolved. Now, while we, the undersigned members of such Legislature, will obey the order of General Ord, and will not attempt to meet again as a Legislature, yet we respectfully, but earnestly, protest against any legal right or power in General Ord to prevent the meeting of such Legislature, and that his order to that effect we claim to be unconstitutional and illegal; as also do we claim the order of Isaac Murphy, based on the request or direction of General Ord as aforesaid. We claim and insist such Legislature was and is in no sense "provisional," but the Legislature of the State of Arkansas, created and elected according to the forms of law and the constitution, and as such had a right to meet when it did, and has the right still to meet at the time to which it adjourned, in July next.

And we respectfully request General Ord to file this with the papers of his office to be preserved among them by the proper department of the Government.

AN IMPORTANT SUIT.

The Case of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad vs. General Buckner.

[From the Louisville Courier of Saturday.]

In the fall of 1861, when General Buckner had command of the Confederate troops at Bowling Green, a pier of the Green river bridge at Munfordsville was blown up by the Confederate troops to prevent the advance of the Federal forces. General Buckner being in command of the Confederate troops in this State. The Louisville and Nashville railroad company brought suit in 1862, in the Chancery Court of this city against General Buckner for, $55,000 for the destruction of the bridge, and for $412,670 15 for destroying water tanks and other property along the railroad, and on December 12th, 1862, a decree was rendered against General Buckner and his property was attached and sold for the payment of the damages claimed by the railroad.

General Buckner was absent from the city at the time of the suit, with his command in the Confederate army, and could therefore make no defence.

The law in such cases admits of the case being reopened within five years, and that time not having elapsed since the decree, and General Buckner feeling that he was not and could not be held responsible for carrying out the military orders and instructions of the Confederate authorities—is now attempting to obtain a rehearing of the case.

Yesterday, Jefferson Brown, Esq., the General's attorney, made a motion in the Chancery Court to be allowed to file an answer, but the council for the railroad objected, and asked time to examine the case, they being unprepared. The motion was therefore laid oyer for hearing until next Friday.

A SCATHING EXPOSURE.

Why Were the Blacks Told to Carry Arms?

MEMPHIS, June 5, 1867.

General John Eaton, Jr., Editor Memphis Post:

SIR: You may conclude that a stranger who ventures upon the liberty of addressing you a letter might do so through some more private and less objectionable channel than the columns of a public newspaper; but as you are the leading editor of a prominent city journal, and as I propose to address you upon a subject of general public interest, without regard to political or party considerations, I have selected this method of doing so, assuring you in advance, that I am not doing it in the interest of any clique or party whatever, but for the purpose, alone, of promoting, as far as I can in an humble way, the harmony and well being of the whole community in which I live. The object of this communication is to call your attention to the following sentence, which occurs in an editorial notice of the colored "picnic" at Bartlett's station some days since, which appeared in your issue of yesterday evening: "The threats of violence that had been given out in different quarters, as we learned, caused a large number of colored men to go prepared for any emergency." This short sentence is, I fear, more pregnant with evil than whole columns of ordinary newspaper fabrications, and I am unwilling to believe that you, when you penned it, had a full apprehension of all the frightful consequences that may result from this and other similar and unfounded and ill-considered statements.

They reveal the secret of the many riots, outrages and disgraceful scenes that are fast converting a once peaceful and happy country into a very Pandemonium, the future of which no thinking man can contemplate without a shudder. These silly but wicked stories are almost always unfounded, being manufactured by heartless, unscrupulous politicians, for the vilest party purposes, without regard to the fearful injury they inflict upon the county; an injury, too, that will, sooner or later, recoil with redoubled force upon its wicked authors. The position which you now hold, together with the character which I learn you bear where you are known, forbids the conclusion that you are yourself the author of this, or that you would deliberately pen and publish to the world a statement so improbable and so bad in its tendencies, unless you believed it was based upon at least some appearance of truth.

Assuming that you have in your possession all the facts that induced you to believe that any class or number of our people contemplated so lawless and wicked an outrage as they would have been guilty of in interfering in any way, by violence or otherwise, with the innocent amusements of so harmless a class as the colored population of our city, particularly when the gathering alluded to in your article was in furtherance of so worthy and commendable an object, viz: the education of them—I respectfully ask, in my own and the name of every good citizen of the country, that you will lay before the public, in such way as you may see proper, a statement of these facts, giving the names of the parties who have made these threats.

If you will do this, I pledge myself and that portion of the community who think as I do about these things, to expose these wicked disturbers of the public peace to the odium which they deserve. In order to enlist others beside yourself in this good work, I propose to give a reward of fifty dollars to any one who will give the name of any sane man who claims to belong to the Conservative party of the county, who has made any threat that would warrant the conclusion indicated in the language which I have quoted from your article above referred to, provided they will at the same time furnish any respectable evidence to establish the truth of the charge.

It may be proper to remark that I am actuated in this matter by no other motive than the one I have avowed; that I belong to no party, am no politician and have no sympathy with those advocating any one of the different political creeds of the day.

As my name would probably add nothing to the force of this communication, I withhold it, for the reason only that I have an aversion to its appearing in a newspaper controversy. Should it become necessary, however, the editor of the Ledger is authorized to disclose it to you.

Respectfully, H. C. Y.

A leading Radical is so impressed with the danger of the passage of the Indemnity Tax Bill, and certain consequent depression of real estate and prostration of all business, that he is trying to sell his real estate property, so that, as he graphically expressed it, "he can have his money in his breeches pocket and leave the State.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Young Lady Returning to her Country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three, she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying, the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Pledged, and devoted to the furtherance of HOME INTERESTS.

The mutual system has deservedly become the most popular mode of insurance in the United States, and is the one embraced by those best informed upon the subject, and who appreciate and desire security, perpetuity and economy. In a purely mutual company, the assured derives all the advantages which can be realized from an insurance, and at the lowest rates; or exact cost, paying no tribute of profit to the proprietors or stock holders, for, perhaps an inadequate capital or security, a certainty of accomplishing the object in view, are the essential elements sought for, and they may be found eminently existing in a well conducted Mutual Insurance Company, and such a Company the Incorporators and Officers propose for the Tennessee State Mutual.

Full information will be furnished at the office of the Company. There are seventeen Mutual Insurance Companies in successful operation in St. Louis, covering by their policies SEVEN-EIGHTS of the real estate of that city. Such is the popularity of the mutual principle in our sister city. apr28-1m

EDITORIAL

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

FRIDAY, : : : : : : : : : : : JUNE 7, 1867

TO THE PEOPLE OF WEST TENNESSEE.

Hon. EMERSON ETHERIDGE, Conservative candidate for Governor, will address the people of West Tennessee at the following time and places:

Purdy, Saturday, June 15th.
Bolivar, Monday, June 17th.
Jackson, Tuesday, June 18th.
Humboldt, Thursday, June 20th.
Dresden, Saturday, June 22d.

Papers of the district are requested to publish the above list of appointments.

WILSON, in one of his incendiary speeches down among the barbarians of the South, undertook to explain the cause of the late war. With an impudence and effrontery that would have shamed the devil, he asserts that the war was brought on because the men that now compose the Radical party favored the abolition of slavery in the States, and opposed the extension of slavery into territory acquired chiefly by the blood and treasure of the North. Has the man no compunctions of conscience? Does WILSON believe that there is no intelligence in the South? Does he suppose that he can palm such falsehoods upon the people as facts? He must surely presume largely upon the ignorance of the Southern people or he would not attempt to mislead the freedmen with such bald and transparent lies. Before the war WILSON and the whole Abolition party declared upon the stump, in their platform, and in all their meetings, that they did not propose to interfere with slavery in the States. The Hon. T. A. R. NELSON, in his recent able and eloquent speech at Greensville, Tennessee, showed that the Thirty-sixth Congress (the first Abolition or Republican Congress that ever assembled) solemnly recommended to the people of the States the adoption of the ADAMS-CORWIN amendment to the Constitution, which proposed to place slavery on a firmer basis than it had ever occupied before, and to declare that it should never be abolished in any State without the consent of the people of that State. That resolution was adopted by the Republicans during the last session in which Mr. NELSON served in Congress, and was urged by him when he came home in all his speeches, and in the address which he published at the close of the canvass, as one of the strongest arguments to show the folly and wickedness of the rebellion.

The Abolition party, out of which has germinated the Radical party, never did propose to interfere with slavery where it existed. They were willing to make it perpetual, as Mr. NELSON shows in his speech. Yet Mr. WILSON has the impudence to assert that the war was waged for the purpose of freeing the slaves.

But we pass on to the exposure of the other falsehood, which is equally as brazen. The Abolitionists and the Free-Soilers did oppose the extension of slavery into any new territory acquired by the United States, but this territory was not acquired "chiefly by the blood and treasure of the North," as asserted by this lying emissary. In fact, before and since the war, the fanatics of the North have often dwelt upon the alleged preponderance of Northern soldiers when the battles of the Union were being fought in Mexico. The North, it is said, has contributed a greater portion of its bone and sinew and blood to the army of the country than the South has ever given; and the statement is reiterated as a proof of superior loyalty, and even superior courage. Official records, however, exhibit the utter falsity of the pretension, and establish the fact that, in the Mexican war, as in every conflict of arms, the South gave up the best blood of her citizens for the maintenance of national honor and right with a prodigality that stands in marked contrast to the volunteer forces contributed by the then free labor States. As proof conclusive and undeniable, we publish the following facts:

VOLUNTEERS TO MEXICAN WAR FROM SLAVEHOLDING STATES.

	No.	Killed.	Wou'd	Died.
Arkansas	1,323	22	3	152
Florida	323	1	1	7
Texas	7,313	48	20	117
Louisiana	7,728	15	6	192
Tennessee	5,410	57	13	186
Kentucky	4,800	105	48	170
Virginia	1,303	6	—	66
North Carolina	936	1	—	171
South Carolina	1,054	58	115	234
Georgia	2,047	4	5	116
Alabama	3,011	—	—	103
Mississippi	2,319	60	45	256
Maryland and D. C.	1,330	13	9	52
Missouri	6,733	28	2	228
	45,630	418	267	2,050

VOLUNTEERS TO MEXICAN WAR FROM NON-SLAVEHOLDING STATES AND TERRITORIES.

	No.	Killed	Wou'd.	Died.
Massachusetts	1,047	2	—	28
New York	2,665	54	77	71
New Jersey	424	2	—	9
Pennsylvania	2,464	39	59	198
Ohio	4,694	31	2	217
Michigan	972	—	—	3
Indiana	4,440	49	—	218
Illinois	5,973	107	97	361
Wisconsin	146	—	—	9
Iowa	229	—	—	3
	23,054	284	235	1,117

At the time of the Mexican war there were only twenty-nine States in the Union, and Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut and Rhode Island sent no volunteers to the Mexican war. The above tabular statement shows that whilst fourteen of the then slave States furnished 45,630 volunteers, the free States and Territories furnished but 23,054. The disparity is marked, considered from any point of view, but especially so in regard to the relative population of the two sections. The figures, we may add, are derived from the Executive Document No. 62 of the Congress of the United States. We have thus branded Yankee WILSON a liar, a base falsifier of the records of his country. Yet this slanderer is sent forward as an apostle to teach the Southern people, and especialy the Freedmen, the causes which produced the late war. The official records of the country brand Senator WILSON, of Massachusetts, as a slanderer, and the small fry politicians of the South who indorse his calumnies and peddle out his slanders are deserving of that contempt which is expressed for them by those who wish the truth of history vindicated. We intend to publish a similar table to the above, and show who fought and won the battles of the Revolution—a war which secured that independence and freedom now denied by Radicalism.

ON the 4th of July, 1776, the patriotic and immortal Congress, then in session at Philadelphia, declared to the world the independence of the North American States. Among the reasons assigned by them for their severance of the ties which had bound them to Great Britain, were the following:

"He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only."

"He has made our judges dependent on his will for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and pay of their salaries."

"He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of new officers to harass our people and eat out their substance."

"He has kept among us in times of peace standing armies."

"He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power."

"He has combined, with others, to subject us to jurisdictions foreign to our Constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation for quartering large bodies of armed troops among us, and for protecting them by a mock trial from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States, for taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering, fundamentally, the forms of our Government."

"A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people."

These are a few of the allegations in the bill of indictment which JEFFERSON, ADAMS, FRANKIN, SHERMAN and LIVINGSTON framed and filed against the King of Great Britain. We ask our readers if it does not apply equally as well to the present tyrant of Tennessee? Let them read it once, and say, if BROWNLOW has not done, in Tennessee, all these things which made the King of Great Britain so odious and so detestable. Is his a mission of peace? Is he not teaching our people how to hate and loathe him?

IT will be seen from the list of appointments in another column that Mr. ETHERIDGE will return in a few days to West Tennessee. It is unnecessary for us to ask the people to turn out and hear this distinguished champion of freedom and equality. A friend, in sending us these new appointments, writing from Greenville, Tennessee, says: "Everything in this end of the State is most encouraging. We will carry East Tennessee by large majorities." All our information corroborates this statement. The corruption and fraud being practiced in this city cannot defeat our glorious champion.

RALEIGH.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 6.

Judge Chase opened the United States Circuit Court this morning. A large number of distinguished members were present. In the course of his remarks he said that military authority is still exercised within Southern circuits, but not now as formerly, in consequence of the disappearance of legal authority and in supervision or control of all tribunals, State or National. It is now used under acts of Congress, and only prevents illegal violence to person and property. It facilitates the restoration of every State to equal rights and benefits in the Union. This military authority does not extend in any respect to the courts of the United States. Let us hope that henceforth neither rebellion nor any occasion for the assumption of the military authority over courts and justices will hereafter suspend the due course of judicial administration in the National tribunals in any part of the republic.

The remainder of the time was consumed by the Court in hearing important cases and motions.

MARRIED.

On the evening of the 28th of May, 1867, at the residence of Colonel J. H. Mosby, Jefferson county, Arkansas, Mr. EDWIN WHITFIELD, of Memphis, Tennessee, to Miss FANNIE T. CALDWELL.

On the evening of the 28th of May, 1867, at the residence of the bride's father, Jefferson county, Arkansas, Mr. R. D. PARTEE, of Memphis, Tennessee, to Miss GEORGIA MOSBY.

These two happy unions were celebrated under the same propitious auspices, at the same time and place, as the above announcements show. Two of our most energetic, prosperous and gallant young business men have culled the fairest flowers from our sister State, and transferred them in all their youthful bloom and loveliness to the soil of Tennessee. They are as two lovely gems come to grace the floral coronet Nature seemed so slow in putting on. We gladly welcome them here, and most sincerely congratulate the fortunate bridegrooms in the happy taste they have shown in their choice. May the faces of the fair brides ever mantle in smiles as the bright sunshine around us at the coming of their lords. May sweet affection, with all the heavenly charms that woman alone can bestow, ever be the reward of the noble and exemplary lives we are confident our two young friends will finish as they have so well begun.

At eleven o'clock, June 6th, in St. Peters and St. Paul's church, by Father Rochefort, Miss MARY A. REED was married to PATRICK TOBIN.

The groom was a brave and gallant soldier of General Forrest's command, and as "none but the brave deserve the fair," we are delighted to record this crowning success of the ex-Confed. The bride is the charming sister of Captain Jack Reed, commander of the Steam Fire Engine on Shelby street, and whose popularity is unexcelled by that of any other gentleman in our city. We extend our best wishes to the party; that their wedded life may be bountifully blessed with all the pleasures that delight the hearts of married people.

The Buntyn HOMESTEAD LANDS FOR SALE.

WE have the pleasure of placing on the market these very desirable and valuable lands, so well known to the community as the Homestead Tract of the late Geraldus Buntyn, Esq., situated at the first station on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, five miles east of the city. The improvements, with about twenty acres of land, have been recently sold to Hume F. Hill, Esq., who now resides upon the premises. The balance of the tract, consisting of about 480 acres, has been laid off in lots varying in size from five to ten acres, fronting upon broad avenues, and laid off so as to secure the greatest amount of comfort. The trains of the Memphis and Charleston railroad afford the opportunity of going in and out of the city, from and to Buntyn's Station, four times a day, so as to make a residence at this point almost as convenient as to live in the city itself.

The choice can now be had of lots wholly or part in original forest, or in field.

IN EXCHANGE FOR CITY PROPERTY.

The executors are directed by the will to sell this place and invest in city property, and we will receive propositions to exchange for either improved or vacant lots in the city.

To all parties looking for a suburban residence, we do not think any property more desirable can be found, in regard to health, convenience or good neighborhood, within the same distance from the city.

The terms will be made very liberal and easy, and the prices low to parties desirous of buying for occupation.

Plans of the subdivision will be shown at our office.

CIRCUIT COURT.—State of Tennessee vs. William Pinkard was concluded yesterday. R. B. Miller, Esq., assisted in the prosecution, and Duval and E. M. Hearn, Esqs., defended. The prisoner was honorably acquitted on a short deliberation by the jury. This was the first effort of our young friend Hearn, and we quote John F. Sale in saying "his argument in the case would have done credit to a veteran of ten years experience." Mr. Hearn has recently come among us, having graduated at the last term of the Lebanon Law School, and we predict for him a successful future.

CIRCUIT COURT.—A number of minor civil cases were tried, and several judgments taken, reaching as far as No. 130. The civil docket will again be taken up, and whatever cases are ready will be tried. The Court will adjourn for the term at twelve o'clock m. on Saturday. No case will be tried by jury on Saturday.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—The grand jury returned several indictments for small offenses. To-day the Court will commence traverse jury trials. Adjourned till 10 a.m.

MEMPHIS FEMALE SEMINARY,
June 6, 1867.

Editors Avalanche:

GENTLEMEN: Your "Local," in a notice in reference to the annual examination of the institution under my charge—The Memphis Female Seminary—committed an error in saying there would be a "grand exhibition at the Tabernacle." This Seminary gives no school exhibitions; but teachers and pupils devote themselves to the legitimate duties of the school room—instruction and study. The commencement exercises will take place at the Tabernacle, on Friday night, the 14th inst., to which patrons and friends of the Seminary are cordially invited, free of charge.

The exercises on that occasion will be such as are customary at first class seminaries, viz: Essays by the graduating class; compositions by the first senior class; awarding diplomas to the graduates, and certificates to others who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, etc., by the President of the Board of Trustees; a literary address by Judge Brown. The exercises will be enlivened by vocal and instrumental music.

Respectfully,
ANNIE D. HAILE.

THE NATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION.

Fourth Day's Proceedings.

The Measures for Raising a National Fund Adopted.

The National Typographical Union reassembled in the Chamber of Commerce, Odd Fellows' Hall, at nine o'clock a.m. yesterday, pursuant to adjournment.

At the hour the President, John H. Oberly, took the chair and called the body to order, when the Secretary proceeded to call the roll and announced a quorum present.

The minutes of the business of the preceding day were read and, with slight corrections, approved.

On motion of Mr. Cavis, the Union went into Committee of the Whole on the subject of the Subordinate Union Constitution, with Mr. Cavis in the chair, and, after considering and adopting articles eight to twenty-two, inclusive, reported, whereupon the Union adopted the Constitution as a whole, and referred the same to the subordinate Unions for ratification.

In considering section one of articles nine, the subject of admitting proprietors and stockholders to membership coming up, Mr. Troup spoke strongly in favor of the measure, and was responded to by Mr. Mullins.

The motion to exclude proprietors from membership being finally brought to a vote, was lost.

Mr. J. F. X. Divine presented his protest with others against the procedure of the Union, holding the same to be unconstitutional.

On motion, the protest was ordered to be spread upon the minutes of the session.

After which the Union adjourned until eight o'clock p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Meeting again at this hour, President Oberly in the chair.

Mr. Campbell, from the special committee to whom was referred the President's annual address, submitted an elaborate report, favoring that portion of the address relative to the raising of a National Fund.

Mr. Campbell also spoke at some length to his paper, and urged the adoption of the measure in the strongest terms.

Mr. Gray, on behalf of the minority of the committee, reported against the measure.

A motion to adopt the minority report was, after prolonged debate, lost.

Mr. Troup moved that that portion of the President's address touching the raising of a National Fund be adopted by the National Union and referred to the subordinate Unions for their ratification, and that in the event of the measure's being ratified by a majority of all the Unions, it then be proclaimed a law by the President.

The motion being put to a vote was carried by forty-five against four.

Mr. Divine, from the Committee on Appeals, asked further time, which was granted.

Mr. Roberson, from the Finance Committee, recommended the appropriation of a sufficient fund to defray the expenses of the officers to the session of the Union, which was concurred in.

The Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. Troup, was allowed a salary of $300 per annum, and the payment of all traveling expenses.

Mr. McDaniel, from the Committee on New Business, reported in relation to a standard of type, which was received and adopted.

An allowance of $7 50 per day for services was made in favor of the Sergeant-at-Arms and Messenger.

A resolution ordering the printing of the new constitution and accompanying documents, when they shall have been ratified by the subordinate Unions was adopted.

Mr. Divine, from the Committee on Appeals, reported, and the report was adopted.

On motion, the Union adjourned until ten o'clock a.m. to-day.

A MYSTERIOUS CIRCULAR.

Where Did it Come From, and to Whom Does it Belong?

The following is a copy of a circular that was distributed on Wednesday last:

KUKLUX KLAN!

OFFICE GRAND SCRIBE,
DEN No. 1, June 1, 1867.

To the Chapters of the Central Division:

The pale moon changes. Soon the skies will be bright. All is well. The Grand Turks will make full reports. Each Chapter will march promptly to the Hall of Banners, and the grand ceremonies will commence at precisely twelve o'clock midnight, on Wednesday next. The Chapter will take up the march at precisely nine o'clock. They will parade the principal streets and thence to the Hall of Banners. All Chapters will be prompt. Let all hope for success to our first Anniversary.

G. G. S. By order of the G. G. C.

It has on the upper left hand corner a nondescript pinky, bloody looking seal. Now what does it mean? Has Lincoln Council christened its hall "den No. 1?" Beasts only have dens. Is there a revival of that mysterious order, the Sons of Malta, which, in 1864, had enrolled among its members lots of fast fellows and a still larger number of P. G. I. A. A's? Is Chandler grand scribe? Is this the secret order of colored people and so called whites that meets in public school rooms to swear and hatch mischief? "The pale moon changes." White men ain't in luck about these times. They can't be registered. They can't vote. They have to pay poll taxes. "Soon the skies will brighten." Does this insinuate that they mean to win the election, votes or no votes? "The Grand Turks will make full reports." Did the Grand Turk of Arkansas tell how many illegal voters he can send over? Did one grand Turk report how much he spent making colored fellows drunk after a recent meeting? How many colored Turks reported? Did the one with three wives report how much he got for attending a meeting? "March promptly." Did they go two and two as the black and white conspirators stole away from the league they have recently been organizing? Imagination fails to fathom the mysteries of this circular. Only a member of Lincoln Council or a Son of Malta can understand its oracular givings out; but with the impudence of a Loyal Leaguer it wants "ALL" to hope for success to their first anniversary.

RIVAL RADICAL PICNICS.

Which Will Get the Votes of Ignorant Colored Men?

The Radical picnics came off yesterday. The one first started was that at Bartlett Station, and it would have been the only one, but its originators were willing to hear Dr. B. F. C. Brooks, the independent Radical candidate for the Legislature, make a speech, and this the Eaton faction of the free speech fellows couldn't stand. The Bartletters had got Carter, the colored stump orator, to assist in getting up their picnic, but he went over to the Eaton party and helped them to get up a wine picnic out on the Charleston railroad. The result was there were two pleasant picnics. That on the Charleston railroad took off a good many who would otherwise have gone to Bartlett's Station; but there was between one and two thousand people at each of them. At the Eaton one the colored fellows who gagged Hunter and Rankin and others at the recent meeting in the Court Room, and got drunk afterward at Barbour Lewis' expense, were enthusiastic for free speech. They had, report says, quite a high time. At Bartlett Station the crowd was addressed by the anti-Eaton orator, Dr. B. F. C. Brooks, Radical candidate for the Legislature, on the platform of rubbing out that part of the Radical Franchise law which deprives colored men of the rights incident to the right of suffrage. At the close of Brooks' speech, three rousing cheers were given for Dr. Brooks. Another meeting is to be held at the same place in a short time, for the express purpose of hearing Dr. Brooks defend his platform and expose the rascality of the Eaton faction.

This is kettle calling the pot black, with a vengeance.

A claim was yesterday made to the County Commissioners to refund excess of taxes paid under wrong assessments, in a case where a recent measurement shows that there is four or five acres less ground than was taxed. Barbour Lewis, Esq., with his usual legal perspicuity, said they "could take advantage of the statute of limitation and not pay the claim." Mr. Merriman wanted to know if that was an honest way of settling, if it was a just claim. J. W. Lewis seemed to think the claimant should be prosecuted for making trouble by not presenting his bill for so long a time. The matter was laid over to allow J. W. Lewis to present the case of some female friend of one of the Commissioners, who wanted the county to assist her to build a house. This case also was laid over.

Among the distinguished arrivals at the Gayoso House we observe General J. L. Alcorn, United States Senator from Mississippi, a man of decided talent and much cleverness; Major A. J. Donaldson, of Nashville, who was in 1856 candidate on the Fillmore ticket for Vice President; Judge A. M. Clayton, of Holly Springs, once appointed Consul to Havana, and has been Judge of the Court of Errors and Appeals; and Colonel J. R. Mosby, who ran for Congress twice, resides at Somerville, and is a clever gentleman.

The dramatic and musical soiree for the benefit of the school of the Holy Cross comes off this evening in the Greenlaw Opera House, and will be a rare and delightful entertainment.

ANOTHER LINCOLN COUNCIL SCHEME.

Another Knavish Trick Concocted.

Lincoln Council is managed by knaves who are as persevering as they are unscrupulous. If one proposed villainy is brought to light, and thus in danger of defeat, they are fertile in new schemes. One time they browbeat the more honest members of their nefarious League, or, to use the language of Mr. W. H. Fitch, their "Thug" association. Another time they, in the name of loyalty and religion, of patriotism and of virtue, seek to wheedle men of good impulse and some conscience into the support of dishonorable measures. There is no violation of municipal rights that they don't justify when it suits their purposes to so do. There is no local interest that they don't sacrifice to further their selfish ends. There is no constitutional guarantee or loyal right that they don't trample on in the name of loyalty, when partizan ends are to be subserved thereby. The scum of civil war—pustules on society—their political corruption is in most cases paralleled by the infamy of their private character. Just at this time they are laboring to convince their dupes that such terrible results would flow from a defeat of Brownlow and his creatures that any means are justifiable, any corruption excusable, any crime a virtue, if it secures the success of the Radical ticket. This they call loyalty. It shocks some of these Radicals, who have more conscience or less cupidity, and they are exposing the projects of the leaders.

One of them furnished information of the plan to give certificates to thousands of Arkansas negroes, and have them vote at our elections, military power being called on to prevent any challenging or going behind the fraudulent certificates issued to such Arkansas negroes. This nefarious scheme, and the indications that it was being carried out, we published yesterday. We adverted to the facts that while hindrances and delays are thrown in the way of white men registering, and white men justly and legally entitled to registration have been on petty and wrongful grounds refused, blacks have been sworn in batches of twenty or more at a time; have not been asked where they live, but if they said they would vote for Brownlow have been at once registered, many hundreds of certificates being now known to be in the hands of Arkansas blacks.

We have just been informed of a new scheme of villainy, concocted by the leaders of Lincoln Council, to further the corruption of the ballot box. It was first broached in some side degree that meets in some office, and its suggestion in the Council so shocked some members that they have quietly withdrawn.

It is the having separate polling places for the blacks, and at these such Brownlow poll clerks and judges, appointed by Davis, as will allow no challenging. They propose to have militia or Federal troops on hand, and if any white man comes about the polling place of the blacks, either to challenge or to take note of the Arkansas negroes who vote he will be summarily arrested. This may be very illegal, but Brownlowism won't stop at that. If it is likely to win; if it can be made to seem very loyal; if it don't evoke too much popular indignation, they will not hesitate at it or anything else.

A BAD BREED OF DOGS.

Remarks by a Naturalist.

During one of my walks in the Southern part of the city, my attention was attracted by a placard with the inscription, "Ladies, Beware!" conspicuously posted on the entrance of city school No. 7, near the corner of Linden and Turley streets. Curious to know the cause of this, I entered the building, and, mirabile dictu, beheld an animal of a hybrid species, between a hound and a spaniel. It seems he is allowed to roam at large over the premises, being placed there by a still more powerful animal, in order to watch over the women and children.

Heretofore, with occasional exceptions, he has been quite tractable, his bark having been worse than his bite. But the approaching dog days have rendered him savagely ferocious. Of late he has shown decided symptoms of hydrophobia, snarling, foaming at the mouth, and even manifesting a desire to tear one of the lady teachers to pieces. A marked idiosyncrasy of this animal is his perfect docility in the presence of men; before gentlemen he has been known to fawn and crouch, licking their feet and hands, and expressing, as well as a dog can express anything, the most abject servility. Kicks and cuffs have been freely given him, but he receives them without even a growl of dissatisfaction. In fact, he is a cowardly puppy, barking and baying at all weak and defenseless creatures, and cringing to the dust before the strong and powerful.

Not unlike him is the keeper, or superintendent dog, who assigns him his work, and whom he seems to regard with a becoming canine respect. This animal is of a still more interesting species—rather anomalous, it is true—being a mongrel, combining the worst characteristics of a jackal and a pet poodle. He is a sleek, tall, well fed looking animal,

> "Curled and perfumed like an Assyrian bull,
> And smelling of musk and insolence."

If he could speak he would say: "I am Sir Oracle, and when I ope my mouth let no dog bark."

With some ladies, who admire the poodle species of men—or dog, I should say—and who have not sufficient discrimination to detect "le main de fer sans les gants des velouirs," he is an undeniable favorite. The dear creatures are charmed by his insinuating ways, not discerning the cloven foot hidden beneath the captivating exterior, and perhaps have never heard that "a man," (why not "a dog?") may smile and smile and be a villain. He, too, is fond of oppression, and, "drest in a little brief authority," struts with a pomposity which his equals and superiors consider simply ridiculous.

In justice to the dogs of Memphis it should be stated that both of these animals are of the genuine Yankee stock, being importations from the State of Massachusetts, that "grand emporium of modesty"—perhaps from the "hub" itself. The superintendent dog has resided long enough amid the refining influences of a Southern clime to acquire some of the noble characteristics of a well trained Southern brute, but if physically, it is certain he has never been morally acclimated. When "the Ethiopian changes his skin and the leopard his spots," then will such degenerate natures rise from dogs to the dignity of men.

POISONED WITH ICE CREAM.

Five Bank Officials in Danger.

Yesterday afternoon the gentlemen employed in the Merchants' National Bank, on Jefferson street, feeling the heat oppressive, determined to cool off on ice cream, and sent out for a supply. When it came five of them partook freely, and were almost immediately afterward attacked with symptoms of having been poisoned. They complained of great pain, and were severely purged and vomited. Dr. C. H. Stanley was called in and gave the needful medical care, but the poisoned parties were all so badly affected that they could not be removed, but laid all night in the bank, which was closed at two o'clock in the afternoon. It is feared that one of those poisoned will not recover. The ice cream not eaten was taken to Dr. Stanley's office and there examined, and found to have in it a portion of sulphate of copper. Further chemical analysis will be made, but the copper is doubtless the poison that was contained in the ice cream. On examination of the place where the ice cream was made it was found that a copper freezer had been used. If it was cleaned before using, it is very singular that the poison should have impregnated the ice cream.

THE LEE ACADEMY.—Mrs. Morgan's school, which is known as the Lee Academy, is popular among our best citizens. Its exhibitions always excite great interest, and we are assured that the fete this year will surpass anything of the kind ever before presented in Memphis. The prizes to be voted for at it are tasteful, elegant and valuable, and the contest to determine by votes which is the most popular private school in Memphis, will doubtless have great influence in determining to which shall be awarded the Tennessee portion of the Peabody fund. The proceeds of this voting for the most popular school in Memphis will be used to purchase philosophical and other apparatus for the Lee Academy.

WHAT'S THE TIME OF DAY?—It used to be a very difficult matter in Memphis to tell the exact time of day. Every watchmaker guessed for himself, and there are from fifteen seconds to five minutes difference. All this is fixed now, as all the leading watchmakers and jewlers take their time from Trudeau & Duke, corner of Second and Madison streets, who have the only observatory in the city. Trudeau & Duke have a fine and large stock of watches, diamonds, solid silverware and jewelry, and are worthy of public support.

A great row occurred last night in a house of ill fame kept by Ann Melrose, near the corner of Poplar and Fourth streets, against which, as a nuisance, complaint has several times been made by the neighbors. A fellow smashed fearfully the countenance of a girl, and being in danger of capture by the police, took refuge on the roof, and was with difficulty secured and locked up in the station house. The fracas attracted a great crowd.

The interest at the First Baptist church last night was very manifest and much solicitation felt for the increase of God's Holy Spirit in this city. The Rev. J. R. Graves will preach to-night, at eight o'clock, and we hope to see the house crowded by anxious hearers of the Word. The church is near the corner of Adams and Second streets.

THE LAST CHANCE.—Tickets in the first drawing of the Southern Asylum Land Lottery, by which the cheapest and best property on published lists will be disposed of, will be sold up to the 10th of June, when the books will be closed. Order tickets through the office, on the east side of Court Square. For the convenience of the public the office will hereafter be kept open until seven o'clock in the evening. 911

James Crawford was fined $50 for beating his wife. This takes fifty dollars out of the bread and meat of the wife and children. Fining is too good for such a fellow.

Several boys were arrested yesterday for—that rare offense in Memphis—insulting passing females. Blackguard boys are not so common here as in most large cities.

The caving in of the street by the bayou, at the Jefferson street bridge, has been long enough in bad condition, if it is anybody's business to repair it.

Three burglars entered on Monday night the house of Mr. Johnston, on Pontotoc street, and stole over five hundred dollars worth of clothing. A colored girl who saw them gave the alarm, but they effected their escape.

A lad named Henry Musser, who has been in the employ of F. G. Wheaton & Co., was arrested yesterday for a defalcation to the amount of $700. He had spent the money playing keno in a place into which he had been inveigled.

John S. Garland, Esq., general agent of the Illinois Central Railroad, with its seven hundred miles of track, is here to look after the interests of that great road, and is stopping at the Overton Hotel.

Sickness in the family of John Bullock, Esq., will, unavoidably, to his great regret, prevent his speaking at Purdy, on the Memphis and Ohio railroad, next Saturday, as he was announced to do.

The Local Committee of Colored Manual Labor Schools for Memphis is composed of W. A. Rankin, Joseph Clouston, sr., Reuben A. Alexander, Peter Lowrey, C. C. Dickinson. The Rev. Peter Lowrey thanks the community of Memphis for their liberality.

Mrs. W. C. Thompson, wife of the accomplished manager of the New Memphis Theater, is on one night next week to give an entertainment for a worthy charitable object. The entertainment will be one of the finest ever given in our city.

There will be a collection taken up on next Sunday at St. Peter's, for the support of the orphans. Let every father show his love to his offspring by a liberal donation to the fatherless. A picnic on behalf of the orphans is suggested for the 4th of July, and will, if gotten up, be a fine affair.

Mr. Robinson, a responsible attorney, heard two colored men yesterday engaged in an excited discussion. Finally one closed the argument by saying: "Go way; you don't know what you talking about. Dis Brownlow is de d——st rascal in dis State." Some colored men are getting their eyes opened.

It is reported that some of the colored men who in the name of free speech gagged Hunter and Rankin at the recent Radical meeting, and wouldn't let anybody tell what they knew of Eaton, got $5 each for their services, and Barbour Lewis, to keep up the credit of the county commission, spent fourteen dollars in treating his colored retainers.

A dress maker, who thoroughly understands her art, and who is shocked when ladies, to create a sensation, will have dresses made in bad taste, has promised us one or more articles on the taste of Memphis ladies, and good taste in the color, texture and cut of ladies' apparel. They will appear in a day or two.

The owner of a dog in this city was offered a half interest in a five thousand dollar dog fight if he would allow his dog to fight another dog in New Orleans for five thousand dollars, and it was stipulated if this Memphis dog should be killed in the fight his owner should receive five thousand dollars, and if he was not returned safely after the fight, ten thousand dollars put up to guarantee his return should be forfeited. The owner, who is a man of property, spurned the offer.

RIVER NEWS.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
FRIDAY, June 7.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Summer has set in with a vengeance, and the sun is making amends for his long neglect. The levee was dull except in front of the Perry. The rise in the past twenty-four hours amounted to four inches, which does not show any decrease, although, as the rivers above are all falling, we may look for a decline within the next two or three days. By actual measurement we find that the present rise is within three feet of being as great as that which preceded it. The Arkansas is very high and doing much damage. White river is also high, but falling.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REUBEN DAILEY IN HIS TRUE LIGHT.—Some of our river friends may remember a kinky headed half breed, who once figured as river reporter of a respectable paper called the Argus, who disappeared when General Dudley ordered the Bureau to arrest all Freedmen without visible means of support. They will, doubtless, be surprised to learn that this creature, who was conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity, has again crawled to the surface of Radicalism like a maggot from the carcass of a jackass, and is now figuring among the Eaton clique for the purpose of securing the cosy little position of Wharfmaster. For the benefit of the community we will give a brief sketch of this wooly headed, ill shapen creature, who was spewed out of the North and drifted here in the overflow of filth that was deposited on the bluff when the respectable portion of the Northern army sought their homes, when "war's alarums" had ceased. His father was a dyer of second hand clothing and sich, and in the absence of business, tried his hand upon this bandy shanked thing that had been born in an evil hour, who was too homely to be brought to the baptismal fount for Christian baptism, and consequently after Reuben came forth from the dye tub, he was of that peculiar color so dear to some of those Northern school marms, and for whose salvation special prayers are daily offered by Beecher and Co. Since the suspension of the Commercial Reuben has been lecturing on phonography, a subject on which he is as ignorant as he is of the first principles of common decency, but of late he has appeared in another role, that of a saint—for we all know that no Radical can hope for anything until he has "put on the livery of heaven to serve the devil in." A few weeks since Reuben applied for ordination as a Baptist minister, but his cloak was too thin, and Reuben's services were declined, but nothing daunted, Reuben attended the late picnic of the colored schools, and spoke a piece, in which he said that "he hoped to live long enough to join the colored angels in Heaven," and many other equally meritorious things; but whether Reuben understood what he was saying when he advanced the idea that there were no "colored angels" now, but would be if he lived "long enough," we are not quite sure, as he told a gentleman that evening that the negroes were "good to practice on," and since that time he has been "practicing" on every occasion.

Reuben was at the Radical meeting lately, trying to work through the nomination of his master, Gineral Eaton, for whom he is working with might and main, the Gineral offering as a bait the office of Wharfmaster. We imagine we see the pretty Reuben, now, figuring in that position, picking up all the small change that the clerks might leave lying around loose, while their backs are turned, during the week, and then on Sundays in the pulpit of Lincoln chapel, "practicing" on his dusky brethren. If, in this age of "progress," such should be the case, we would advise all steamboat clerks to have a "lock safety valve" attached to their cash drawers, for nothing will escape this miserable parasite that is clinging to the festering carcass of Radicalism, and who is the embodiment of all that is mean and contemptible, and in whose miserable face one can easily trace the lineaments that adorn the faces portrayed in the rogues' gallery. We would also caution the respectable portion of our colored citizens to keep a sharp look out for their old clothes, lest Reuben should also take it into his head to try his father's art by "practicing" on them, and dyeing them for sale to their original owners for new ones, for he is none too good for this.

We hear it stated that the Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Line have gone, or are about to go, into liquidation. If they do the small stockholders will not own all the boats in the line by any means.

The fine packet Rubicon, Captain Blake, will be in port to-day, and will leave again for Vicksburg and way landings at five p.m. Few steamers are more popular than the Rubicon, and no officer is more so than Captain William Blake. Mr. Alf. Grissom, the chief clerk, is a competent and reliable gentleman. The Rubicon pays especial attention to way freights.

It is reported that there is in a private family in this city a large number of sheets, towels, etc., belonging to the J. D. Perry. Suit is about to be instituted for their recovery.

The Dan. Able backed out last evening about half past seven. She was crowded with gay and happy people, the elite of our city. A number of our citizens were out upon the bluff to see her depart, but were disappointed in getting a good view. She crossed the river to get an addition to her pantry ware from the St. Patrick. We will give full particulars of the trip in our local columns to-morrow. The Dan. Able will be found in port this morning, ready to receive freight for Vicksburg and way points.

The J. D. Perry, with the gentlemanly Captain Lee Finney in command, leaves for Cairo and Evansville at ten o'clock a.m. Mr. Miller is her chief clerk.

The Centralia came in Wednesday from Arkansas river. She departed for St. Louis and the mountains. She takes a duplicate of the trip lost on the Nora from St. Louis. Her engagements, we learn, amount to 150 tons of Government freight, and several lots for private parties, at the rate of nine cents per pound.

The Guidon, another Memphis packet, has made a quick passage to Benton, and is now on her way back. She passed several boats which started in advance of her from St. Louis.

Depression in Charleston on Account of Orders of General Sickles.

The Alabama Radicals Indorse Their Northern Brethren.

Secretary Stanton in Favor of a Reprimand to General Sheridan.

RALEIGH, June 6.—The President and party left for Chapel Hill yesterday morning. Judge Chase arrived here yesterday to open a court in North Carolina. He was enthusiastically received by the negroes.

CHARLESTON, June 6.—There is considerable depression in this community, owing to the recent orders of General Sickles interfering in municipal affairs. During the last two days city stock has declined ten to fifteen per cent. The Board of Trade deprecates his action as injurious to the city, and appointed a committee to confer with Sickles in relation thereto.

MONTGOMERY, June 6.—The Union Republican Convention of Alabama adjourned after two days' session. Over forty counties were represented. Resolutions were adopted declaring alliance with Northern Radicals, indorsing the Congressional reconstruction act, favoring civil and political rights among all classes, the education of negroes, the removal of the cotton tax, and acquiescence of Confederates in all Radical measures.

Three cases were before the Circuit Court of this district against Judge Busteed for an alleged illegal conversion of moneys, conspiracy to defraud plaintiffs, and the corrupt abuse and usurpation of the office of judge.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Tribune's New Orleans special telegraphs to that paper Sheridan's dispatch to Grant, giving his reasons for removing Judge Abell, Mayor Monroe and Attorney General Herron.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—It is stated that in a conference between General Grant and Secretary Stanton, the latter favored the administration of a reprimand to General Sheridan for his wholesale removals.

LONDON, June 5.—Lord Monck has been appointed Viceroy of Canada.

THOS. R. SHARP, Gen'l Sup't.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the public to this wonderful Steam Engine, now on exhibition at the

Which is cheaper, lighter, less intricate, occupies less space, consumes less fuel than any other engine, and is superior in every other way, it being in fact a double cut-off engine, without the friction of a double set of valves with their multiform attachments, and for its superior merits was

AWARDED THE GOLD MEDAL

At the Maryland Institute Fair, in October, 1866, over all other engines. This invention, therefore, forms the most radical and entire change in steam engines which has occurred since the days of Watts, being durable, accurate, and economical in operation and space beyond all comparison with the past, and at far less original cost than ever before attained. ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

At the wonderful revelations made by the great Astrologist

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

SHE reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, etc., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, inclosing a small lock of hair.

Address,

THE CHINGARORA

ANTI-NERVOUS

SMOKING TOBACCO

THE CHINGARORA TOBACCO grows from the rich soil of the "ORIENT," and is possessed of a peculiarly delicious flavor entirely unknown to the tobaccos of all other climes. But its unprecedented popularity has sprung from the fact of the entire absence of that deadly poison Nicotin, which permeates every other tobacco, and which is the one and the sole cause of the distressing nervous diseases, dyspepsia, etc., which most invariably, sooner or later, follow the indulgence of the pipe and cigar. At the recent analization of tobacco from all parts of the world, at the Academy of Sciences, in Paris, the renowned Chemist, M. Lamoureaux, declared that while European and American tobacco contained fully eight per cent., and the purest Havana tobacco from two to five per cent. of Nicotin, the CHINGARORA did not contain one discoverable particle of that deadly poison, a drop of which, extracted, will destroy life.

Our Agent at Bombay has shipped us large quantities of the CHINGARORA during the past two years, and although we have been pressed to supply the demand for this delicious luxury to the veteran smoker, yet we are now prepared to offer it in unlimited quantities, at a price much lower than some American tobacco of a far inferior quality.

A connoisseur has but to smoke the American tobacco and cigars which are invariably chemically flavored, to be disgusted with the medicinal taste, which leaves a nauseous, unhealthy coating in the mouth, and in time seldom fails to shatter the nervous system.

The natives of the "ORIENT" smoke the CHINGARORA from morn till night, from youth to age, and are happily unconscious of the wild, distressing fire which courses through the veins of the inhaler of the fumes of tobacco containing Nicotin.

We invite every lover of the weed to try the CHINGARORA, and guarantee unprecedented pleasure in its delicious flavor. SOLD EVERYWHERE.
